

COLORADO

April 14, 2006

Keith Jones has been a splendid guest chef on KUSA-TV's "Colorado and Company," which airs Monday through Friday at 10am. The one hour live magazine talk show is both an advertorial and community produced show that also includes fine local chefs like Keith Jones. He has appeared almost a dozen times in the shows 20 months on the air. We value his zesty personality and informative cooking tips that entertain viewers and even the studio crew.

We hope to feature Keith Jones on future segments with his colorful style and expert cuisine art.

Sincerely,

Dreux DeMack
